NO RACES IN THE AFTERNOON

The 100 mile run for the W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., trophy was run off this morning, in which there were 9 entries, starting in the following order, one minute apart:

5. A. E. McDonald, 90 h p Napier.
8. B. M. Shanley, 90 h p Daimler.
13. W. G. Brokaw, 60 h p Renault.
21. A. G. Vanderbilt, 90 h p Fiat.
25. W. Wallace, 90 h p Fiat.
27. Jos. Heller, 80 h p Pipe.
28. S. B. Stevens, 90 h p Daimler.
30. W. Christie, 60 h p Christie.
11. H. W. Fletcher, 80 h p American DeDietrich.

The race started at the 4 mile post south of the Club house the cars running north of the club house to the 6 mile post and returning thus covering 16 miles. They continued south to the 8 mile post and returned, making 32 miles; thence north to the 6 mile post and return covering 44 miles; south to No. 8 and again returning, making 60 miles; north to No. 6 and return, covering 72 miles; south and back, 88 miles; north and back completing the 100 miles. Times were taken at the finish of the 32, 44, 60, 72, 88 and 100 miles.

The finish of the 32 miles was

At the completion of the 11 miles No. 11 was still leading, though she had lost somewhat, crossing the line in 35:12 1-5; No. 5, 35:32 3-5; No. 21, 36:40 1-5; Nos. 8, 25, 13, 27, 30, 36 following in order. Nos. 8 and 21 were but two seconds apart.

The 60 miles were finished by 11, which had again gained, in 17:49; No. 25, 18:39; No. 21, 19:32 1-5; Nos. 13, 8, 30 and 36 following.

No. 11 had gained at the 72 mile post and was nearly a minute ahead, her time being 57:02 1-5. No. 21's gasoline tank had dropped and one end was nearly touching the ground. Three cars were in sight at the finish of the 72 miles, two meeting in front of the grand stand, and great cheers went up for Nos. 11 and 25.

25 second in 38:53 3-5; 28, 3:17 2-5 and No. 16 last.

The starters in the second heat were:

9. A. E. McDonald, 90 h p Napier.
21. Paul Sartori, 90 h p Fiat.
10. W. Christie, 60 h p Christie.

On crossing the line McDonald jumped ahead with a great burst of speed but failed to finish on account of the trouble. No. 21 won in 3:58; No. 20 second in 1:08 1-5.

In the third heat were entered cars 6, 25 and 21, which finished in order given, the times being 3:30 1-5, 3:46 and 1:15. E. R. Thomas drove his own car and won the heat and the trophy.

E. R. Thomas car was started at 3:40; W. Wallace was given 19 seconds and Paul Sartori 31 seconds.

made by the cars in the following time: No. 11, 25:12 2-5; No. 25, 26:23 4-5; No. 5, 26:26; Nos. 21, 8, 13, 27 and 36 following in the order given. McDonald stopped at the 15 mile run to repair a tire. No. 21 made a close turn at the 21 mile post. The De Dietrich car led by about half a minute.

At the 88 mile, No. 25 came up with a left front tire gone, but Wallace kept up and finished the 100 miles. He had been holding in his machine and just as he opened up for faster running his tire burst. No. 11 finished in 69:31 2-5; 21 in 72:18 3-5; Nos. 13, 25, 28, 30 and 8 following.

The 100 miles was finished by No. 11 in 1:18:24; No. 13, 1:21:38; No. 8, 1:21:28 4-5; No. 30, 1:27:16 1-5; No. 25, 1:29:20.

Wm. Wallace made two sensational turns within two feet of the stakes, excellent photographs of which were secured.

There were not nearly so many people on the beach as there were last week, but the enthusiasm, due to many of the exciting incidents and spurts of speed, was much greater.

The 5 mile open race for the W. Gould Brokaw trophy was run off in three heats, the starters in the first heat being as follows:

6. E. R. Thomas 90 h p Daimler.
16. G. H. Flinn 60 h p Daimler.
25. W. Wallace 90 h p Fiat.
28. S. B. Stevens 90 h p Daimler.

The cars lined up about 1 mile north of the club house and ran south, the cars starting well together. No. 6 finished first in 3:23 3-5.

Sartori finished first in 3:57; Thomas second, 4:01 1-5; and Wallace last.

The races tomorrow will start at the Club House at 8 a. m.

New Auto Association.

Thirty men interested in the promotion of automobilism at the annual gathering of the owners of the fastest racing machines of the world, on the fastest course on earth and in the preparation of an interesting program each winter and in its successful promotion and execution, gathered in the Hotel Ormond Saturday evening and organized, Chas. H. Hyde acting as secretary. Brief remarks were made by several present, demonstrating the necessity of the organization.

After debate, S. A. Miles presented a resolution providing that the meeting proceed to the election of a committee of nine, of which not less than five shall be residents of Ormond, who shall name a board of directors, nominate officers, arrange for membership, adopt by-laws and constitution and arrange for a general meeting to be held not later than February, 1906. The meeting elected the following: James Carnell, John Price, J. A. Bostrom, Dr. William Miller and W. S. Kenney, of Ormond and W. J. Morgan, S. A. Miles, Frank X. Mudd and H. L. Bowden.

The meeting then adjourned.

The committee held a meeting after the adjournment and elected John many racers would go to the Cuban meet. The Daytona News reporter, S. A. Miles, stated the city of Havana offered a gold and silver cup, which is a very old, the goddess of Havana, who supports a palm tree on top of which is the cup. This becomes the absolute property of the winner, and a similar cup will be offered each year. He further stated that the roads would be particularly good, the scenery and racers afforded all possible entry, there being but one route for this 100 mile event on road. Several other handsome cups are offered, among them one by United States Ambassador Spines.

The Impetuous Turk.

Collecting money from Turkey is a heart-breaking enterprise. A distinguished American went there to collect a debt of money owing to him by a Turkish official. He found two men, one of whom was a cabinet minister, and the other a high official, who were both very rich. He asked them for the money, but they refused to give it. He then wrote them a letter, telling them of his mission and then you will be as far off from obtaining your money as you are today," he remarked. Men had gone out there to prosecute claims, he added, whose hair had turned gray with the strain to which they were subjected and who had gone home thoroughly broken in health, unable to obtain a Turkish lira to show for years of fruitless labor. One victim of Turkish duplicity and procrastination died in a lunatic asylum. One of the embassies had been twenty-five years prosecuting claims without realizing a cent.

Price president, W. S. Kenney, secretary and Senator W. J. Morgan, general manager. The name of the organization will be the Ormond Racing Association. Times-Union.

The circulation of the DAILY NEWS is steadily increasing and on Monday passed the 500 mark by a clear majority of 100. Monday's edition of the paper was exhausted fifteen minutes after the last form was off the press. 600 for a daily in a city the size of Daytona is a very creditable showing and is evidence that the public appreciate our efforts. It shall be our aim to build the circulation to a still higher figure and to accomplish this will make it better and better each day.

The Parade a Failure

Hundreds of people went over to the beach yesterday morning to see the great automobile parade, averted to take place. Vehicles of all kinds were pressed into service. A dozen or more professional photographers were on hand and had their cameras in places of vantage to secure good pictures.

The day was an ideal one for an event of this character. The sky and atmosphere were clear, the weather warm and balmy so that even the invalid or the aged, could well be present, and why the event should have been allowed to fall through is incomprehensible. Some state that the church going people objected to having a meeting of this kind take place on Sunday. Others state that it was on account of the differences of opinion as to the best route and formation of the parade between the various officials which kept many away.

Whatever the cause, the crowd was much dissipated and severe criticism was to be heard on every hand for the failure to carry out this part of the program which could not be laid to the weather or tide.

might the factor part of the week's strife. But the placing of Al Bechold in dead cars for the Green Dragon failed to be equal to the occasion.
When Barney called for speed necessary to defeat the monster cars of three times the horse power of the Dragon, Al Bechold was not a warm place in the hearts of all Daytona who have met him and will be welcomed back next year.

Runaway Accident.

The team of a white pie delivered by Liverman Johnson while being driven north on Beach street, yesterday morning, took fright at two automobiles and ran away. One of the reins broke and Carl Sparks, the driver, only turned the team into a lonely road just near the corner of Adams avenue, which stopped them.

Outside of a few scratches received by Mr. Sparks and one of the ponies no damage was done. The team was partly broken up and how much later limbs could be torn off and not do more damage seems strange.

The runaway was caused by a man turning to the left, which crowded the spirited team very close to another auto, the ponies naturally becoming frightened.

Boys' Band.

The Boy's Band of the Georgia Industrial Home, was greeted by a small audience Saturday night, during the cold weather, prevailing. These boys present an excellent appearance and show that they are well taken care of and carefully instructed.

The playing of Willie Hancock and his triple tonguing were remarkable and evidenced that musical talent is possessed by some of the youngsters. The rendition of "The Hokey Co." by the full band was much appreciated and loudly endorsed.

There are several boys in this district from Florida, among them
Geo. Jones, of Monticello, who plays the lead cornet.

The boys spent several hours sitting on the beach, Sunday, and watching the autos speed by.

M. E. Conference.

Collegians In Public Life

By President WOODROW WILSON of Princeton University

It is not necessary for every man to go into any particular profession, but EVERY STUDENT SHOULD ENTER PUBLIC LIFE TO SOME DEGREE.
There is a marked distinction between public life as a career and duty. The arrangement of our politics is such that few men can enter public life as a career, for under the pre-scent organization there is no assurance that one who has served faithfully will receive any reward. We must admit that unless a man is of independent means his political services are apt to become a strain on his conscience. The temptation to "graft" is too great, and when a man has no other means of supporting his wife and family HE IS GOING TO MAKE HIS POLITICAL SITUATION PAY ALL.

IT POSSIBLY CAN. It is a well known fact that the best public service has been rendered by men who have not made a living out of it.

There are two things which the college man must render to his country and which demand his entrance into public life—first, a sense of identity of just things with the present, and, secondly, criticism, for which his education has prepared him if he took due advantage of his opportunities. The trouble with the uneducated man is that he does not know the history of his country. It is willing enough, but he is not familiar with the many experiences that have been often tried and failed. It is the business of the instructed man or the college graduate to maintain for a long time a bright recollection of what has happened, and thus keep the less fortunate in possession of a knowledge of the experiences through which the country has passed. Too often it is the case that one generation, being ignorant of the history of the past generation, will try the same thing over again and meet with a second failure. The knowledge of the fact that the process of right thinking is accompanied by means of a slow ELIMINATION OF ERROR ought to convince us that no thought can be entirely free from error.

IT IS THE DUTY OF EVERY MAN TO CARRY THROUGH THE WORLD THE LIGHT THAT HIS FORTUNATE CIRCUMSTANCES HAVE GIVEN TO HIM.

A Famous Anecdote.

One of the most important architectural works of western Europe is the cathedral of Notre-Dame in Amiens.
After the lapse of sixteen centuries this monumental structure still stands the yearling, being built in nearly perfect condition. The highest part of the cathedral is a small oval just wide enough for a man to creep through and still retaining a thick lining of Roman cement. The height of the structure is 158 feet and the length of the highest arch is 572 feet. Its use was to convey the city of Amiens the water of two springs twenty-five miles distant.

A Hint of the British Navy.

The British navy has the time of Alfred the Great has claimed the possition of being "first among equals" and has maintained this position for a century. It is acknowledged by the navies of the world in the fact that on meeting a British man-of-war they first salute, the country being returned by the British ship. The British respected this demand until 1872 and the United States, then which date it has been an item of international law.

"Ye" For "Thou."

"Ye" for "thou" is not new and never was a proper English expression. The word "thou" as it appears in all old English documents, should always be pronounced as "thee" the "ye" being only a corruption of the form which was used in place of "thou" and which was formerly used by priests when difficulties were experienced in "speaking out."

Obituary.

"Thou" said his last words, "what is struggling over his losses, 'what is an obituary'?"

"An obituary," replied his father,
"is an Englishman to whom you present a scandalous piece." Philadelphia Lodge.

Awkwardly Exposed.

Never did one functionary look so awkward as a married man gets a few dollars saved up to do with and spend it on some woman he admires.
Bachelor—Doesn't he? Newlywed—No.
He says something for his wife.

Black Wagon.

"He offered her his hand and his future," said a man.

"Did she accept?"

"No. The first was too large and the second too small."

A Disappointed Man.

Probably the most disappointed man on the beach Saturday was Al Bechold chief mechanical expert for Barney Oldfield. That the Green Dragon did not win in every event in which it was entered was not the fault of Al for he worked day and night the better part of three weeks to get the famous machine in her stride. But the pleading of Al fell on deaf ears for the Green Dragon failed to be equal to the occasion when Barney called for speed necessary to defeat the monster cars of three times the horse power of the Dragon. Bechold has won a warm place in the hearts of all Daytonians who have met him and will be welcomed back next year.

Runaway Accident.

The team of white ponies owned by Liveryman Johnson while being driven north on Beach street, yesterday morning, took fright at two automobiles and ran away. One of the reins broke and Carl Sparks, the driver, coolly turned the team into a bushy cedar tree near the corner of Volusia avenue, which stopped them.

Outside of a few scratches received by Mr. Sparks and one of the ponies no damage was done. The tree was badly broken up and how such large limbs could be torn off and not do more damage seems strange.

The runaway was caused by an auto turning to the left, which crowded the spirited team very close to another auto, the ponies naturally becoming frightened.

A Famous Aqueduct.

One of the most imposing architectural relics of western Europe is the aqueduct of Nismes, in southern France. After the lapse of sixteen centuries this colossal monument still spans the valley, joining hill to hill in nearly perfect state. The highest range of arches carries a small canal just wide enough for a man to creep through and still retaining a thick lining of Roman cement. The height of the structure is 188 feet and the length of the highest arcade 872 feet. Its use was to convey to the city of Nismes the water of two springs twenty-five miles distant.

A Right of the British Navy.

The British navy since the time of Alfred the Great has claimed the position of being "first among equals" and has maintained this position to the present day. It is acknowledged by the navies of the world in the fact that on meeting a British man-of-war they first salute, the courtesy being returned by the British ship. The Dutch resisted this demand until 1675 and the French until 1704, since which date it has been an item of international law.

"Ye" For "The."

"Ye" for "the" is not now and never was a proper form of expression. The word "ye," as it appears in all old books and legal documents, should always be pronounced as "the," the "y" being only a corruption of the thorn letter, a symbol which stood in place of "th" and which was formerly used by printers when difficulties were experienced in "spacing out."

Obtuse.

"Pa," said little Willie, who was struggling over his lessons, "what is an obtuse angle?"

"An obtuse angle," replied his father, "is an Englishman to whom you try to explain a joke."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Awkwardly Expressed.

Newlywed—You bachelors are foolish. Now, when a married man gets a few dollars saved up he doesn't go and spend it on some woman he admires. Bachelor—Doesn't he? Newlywed—No. He buys something for his wife.

Both Wrong.

"He offered her his hand and his fortune." "Did she accept?" "No. The first was too large and the second too small."

Flogging.

Jewish rabbis had a legend which carries corporal punishment back to the days of our first parents, which is quaintly reflected in that modern schoolboy's play upon names, "Adam Seth Eve Cain Abel."

Of course there is, too, the warning of Solomon, "He that smareth the rod hateth his son," or the old Egyptian proverb, "The back of a lad is made that he may be beaten to him that beats it," but if we must go on history alone the earliest records belong to the Romans, who practiced flogging in several degrees of severity.

There were the fenna, a flat strip of leather, a comparatively mild punishment; the scutella, a harsher instrument of twisted parchment, and the flagellum, a cruel scourge of leather thongs.

Diamonds on Board Ship.

Millions of dollars' worth of diamonds are imported into this country every year. In carrying packages of such tremendous value over seas extraordinary precautions are taken. They are insured in strong safes and so carefully guarded that not an instance has ever been recorded in which diamonds have been lost or stolen, though a man could easily walk off with half a million dollars' worth of gems in his waistcoat pockets were it not that it is one of the most difficult undertakings in the world to commit such a theft or even to find where the gems are stored on shipboard.

Coffins as Furniture.

A man living at Queensbury not only uses his coffin as a piece of household furniture, but he has also a grave made in the local churchyard headed by a gravestone on which his name is set out in conventional style. Underneath is the line, "Not dead, but waiting."

One man at Tong, near Bradford, kept his Sunday clothes in his coffin, and another, who ate porridge at breakfast, used his coffin as a meal bin.

Some years ago a Kelghly man kept butterfly specimens in his coffin.—London Mail.

Shaftesbury's Retort.

When a member of a church congress at Manchester argued that the introduction of the custom of cremation would endanger belief in the resurrection of the dead the reply of Lord Shaftesbury silenced any further doubt when he asked, "What, then, has become of the holy martyrs who were cremated?"
